Guest speaker Deborah A. Santiago will share Excelencia in Education’s preliminary findings regarding the success of Latino students at selective institutions. Attendees will engage in a dialogue regarding institutional efforts and strategies that can increase Latino student success in higher education.